

2023 Hour For Peace NoCo Memorial for George Bishop

August 31, 1954, to November 26, 2023

Our beloved and dedicated peacemaker, Native American George Bishop, died November 26th from a heart attack at 69. While we know he's found Eternal Peace, we will miss him very much, and extend our deepest sympathies to his loved ones.

We first learned of George's passing when fellow peacemaker Millie Mitchell posted on Facebook, "I am so sad to share that one of my favorite souls in Ft Collins passed last night. I am in shock. George Bishop was a righteous bad ass who I always wanted in my corner. I think he will be even more powerful on the other side."

He was indeed a "righteous bad ass" with Bear Energy; wise and gentle, yet with a core of strength and determination to advocate and fight for those less fortunate. With degrees in Educational and Counseling Psychology, he helped many incarcerated men and Native Americans with substance abuse problems. He worked at Home Hospice Association and was a Life Coach at Buddha Bear Wellness & life coaching. Dedicated to peace, justice, and human rights, he helped with the Hour For Peace many years, and no job was too big or too small for him. He brought Native American symbols for the MultiFaith altar and spoke about Native American spirituality. He usually brought his kids, Alex and Grace, with him and they helped as "gofers" and hosts for other kids. They were very young during the mid and late 2000's and often fell asleep on the couches at Blessed John. But George was teaching them valuable lessons about working for peace, not just talking about it.

True to his Mohawk heritage, he was also a passionate environmentalist who studied Agriculture and Environmental Technology at Kemptville College of Agriculture. We are all so blessed to have known and worked with this intelligent, enlightened, compassionate, courageous, beloved soul.

I give you this one thought to keep –
I am with you still – I do not sleep.
I am a thousand winds that blow,
I am the diamond glints on snow,
I am the sunlight on ripened grain,
I am the gentle autumn rain.
When you awaken in the morning's hush,
I am the swift, uplifting rush
of quiet birds in circled flight.
I am the soft stars that shine at night.
Do not think of me as gone –
I am with you still – in each new dawn.
